

To Our Readers

RE: Subscriptions and Rates

DEAR READERS:

SUBSCRIPTION time is any time! TEM relies entirely on the support of University & Public Libraries and on sales to local & international subscribers such as you are. Without your generous and perceptive support there would be no TEM at all.

OUR costs have gone up since the cost of paper inflates from month to month. An increase in the subscription rate is a very serious consideration. There are so many worthy causes and legitimate claims on your generosity that we are somewhat appalled to raise the cost of TEM. Given the unique nature of this publication we hope that you will not be shocked at the subscription of $25/volume & $8/ sample copy. We hope that the current appearance of TEM once yearly only instead of once every four months will give you time to breathe, to catch up on your reading commitments and to count your money carefully.

ANOTHER issue presents itself. Please understand that TEM is a non-profit venture. The business charges which we would have to pay to operate a proper business account would sink us. For this reason it is required that you make all your checks/money-orders payable to Joe Ruggier rather than to the corporate name.

PLEASE send a photocopy of this subscription form along with a check or money order, made payable to Joe Ruggier, to the address below.
